Certified in Risk and Information Systems Control™ CRISC™
TESTED 10/28/2023 - with English Form

Your Total Scaled Score is 728.00

Congratulations! You were successful in achieving a passing score on the CRISC exam.

Exam scores are reported on a scale from 200-800. A scaled score is a conversion of your raw score(s) to a common scale. A score of 450 represents a minimum passing score established by ISACA's CRISC Certification Working Group. Below is your score by area.

SCALED SCORES OF YOUR PERFORMANCE BY AREA

Governance: 728
IT Risk Assessment: 800
Risk Response and Reporting: 746
Information Technology and Security: 638

VERY IMPORTANT:

You are not yet certified. To become certified as a CRISC and enjoy the benefits of certification, you must earn the required job experience and submit an Application for CRISC Certification. The application is available at www.isaca.org/CRISCapp.
Until your application is received and approved, you are not CRISC certified and cannot use the CRISC designation.

If you have any questions about your eligibility for CRISC certification or about whether or not your experience qualifies for certification please contact the ISACA Customer Experience Center by visiting support.isaca.org.

Achieving CRISC certification is a fundamental step in your career development process. CRISC certification will enhance your credibility and recognition with employers, peers and clients as well as boost your earning potential. We encourage you to apply for CRISC certification as soon as you have the required experience.

Again, congratulations on your success. We encourage you to be active with ISACA at a local and/or global level and look forward to having you join the more than 90,000 professionals worldwide who have earned the CRISC credential.
